Looking for a small model rr club in Stratford??

“Thanks John, I appreciate your updates. The Church layout is moving along slowly – as-it-should. I think I mentioned before it is 6 x 12 feet which is fairly small but the track wanders around in the centre a bit and that gives it about a scale mile before it repeats.

It has a fairly complete downtown section and an industrial area with a couple of factories. One will be a furniture factory while the other ... we don't know yet but it could be almost anything.”

Floquil Paint is disappearing!! so get what you need now. Thanks to Bob Thomson here in London, for a cross reference (from Microscale Industries) for you to find substitute paint colours from alternate paint manufacturers besides Testors Floquil line. http://www.microscale.com/ResourceCntr_Floquil.html

From Chris Lyon: Don Leger is an HO Scale model railroader in Ottawa. He is now eighty-one years young and has decided to take down his layout. Something we will all have to consider someday.
